

CLIMB AND CHILL WEEKS

Malaysia edition

So we've decided to create ultra affordable group trips, something that as budget backpackers, we would actually do ourselves.

This will be the first of many, so we are really excited to see Who comes to the first edition!! Hopefully that'll be you 💕

We are sure you want some details, so here they are-

📍 Location

We'll be based near Batu Caves, Malaysia — We Spent a full month here at the end of our trip and it is EPIC. Loads of great crags, a sushi place we got addicted to (and shall bring you to) and obviously, Batu caves themselves are something you can't miss.

🏠 Accomodation

We've booked out a villa that fits 10 people— since we are 2, that leaves 8 spaces 😎

- A private villa with shared rooms
- A Pooooool!!! 🏊
- WiFi, air con, all that important stuff

What's included and what isn't-

- 7 nights in the villa ✅
- Welcome sushi night 🍣 (on us!) ✅
- Group trip to Batu Caves Temple ✅
- Local climbing crag recommendations ✅
- Climbing with us- but NOT guiding climbing ✅
- Flights & transport to the villa ❌
- Climbing gear (bring your own or rent locally) ❌
- Food (besides sushi night) ❌
- Personal insurance ❌

(We are experienced climbers, but legally not guides, we've never taken a guiding course so you need to be self sufficient)
